NARRATIVE:

John Serrao has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 26. His convictions include domestic violence with injury, battery on a peace officer, grand theft auto, evading a peace officer, reckless driving, identity theft, possession of controlled substances while armed, credit card fraud, sales of narcotic controlled substances, malicious damage to power lines, forgery, grand theft of access cards, passing fraudulent checks, driving on a suspended license and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 28 month term for identity theft. Serrao was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 21, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Serrao qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances while armed is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
